

Airport Transit Visa

If you are a resident of Singapore and require an airport transit visa in Germany, you can apply for a Schengen visa at the German Visa Application Centre:

VFS Global Visa Application Centre (79 Anson Road #15-02, Singapore 079906).

An appointment is required for submission of the application (Website VFS).

If you are a resident of Singapore planning to travel with a stopover at a German airport and: 1) you benefit from the “transit privilege”, 2) you are not leaving the International Airport Area and 3) your destination is not in a Schengen Country you do not need a transit visa.

For a list of nationals who do not have the transit privilege and hence require a transit visa please check: Transit list

Certain exceptions to this above list apply to airport transit travellers, who are holding: 1) a residence title of a member state of the European Union (visa or residence permit) OR 2) a visa of a member state of the European Economic Area (EEA, i.e. Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway), Japan, Canada or the USA OR 3) a permanent residence permit of Andorra, Japan, Canada, Monaco, San Marino or the USA

Holders of a Diplomatic Passport do not require an airport transit visa.

Kindly note that the application cannot be submitted earlier than 3 months before the travel date.

Please make sure to submit all the documents on the list with 1 copy when you show up for your appointment. Applications with missing documents cannot be accepted.

Please note that the application has to be submitted personally, unless biometric data has already been taken in the last 59 months.

Processing time: The average time for a visa application is 5 working days, but applicants are advised to leave at least 15 days between the appointment date and travel date as some applications/nationalities take longer for the Embassy to process.

Fees: the Visa fee of the Embassy is equivalent of EUR 80.00 in SGD, for children EUR 40.00 in SGD. Additionally, VFS charges a service fee of EUR 34.13 in SGD
